Dear Friend:

The members of the Greater Rappahannock Area Ladies League (GRALL) and the Sister Of Ivy Educational Foundation (SOI) are pleased to invite your sponsorship of the “Hit the Links” Charity Golf Tournament to be held on Friday, October 15, 2010 at the Augustine Golf Club in Stafford, Virginia (www.augustinegolf.com).

The Tournament will be a four-person scramble and will feature prizes for the winning teams, hole prizes and other opportunities to win. Your sponsorship is most welcome and critical to the event’s success.

GRALL is a not for profit organization of dynamic women dedicated to community service within the Greater Rappahannock area (the areas of the City of Fredericksburg and the counties of Spotsylvania, Stafford, King George, and Caroline). GRALL is committed to making a difference!

GRALL has

- granted over $2,000.00 in scholarships to area high school students
- collected funds and non-perishables for area Food Banks
- sponsored Community Health Fairs
- partnered with the Topsy Foundation of South Africa to raise awareness for international AIDS/HIV programs.

The Sisters of Ivy Educational Foundation, Inc. (SOI) mission is to foster the education, social and cultural standards of the greater Fredericksburg area community. The Foundation annually provides several scholarships to deserving high school students and its activities include sponsorship of the biennial Debutante Cotillion; health fairs; an academic excellence community program; and sponsorship of numerous community events. SOI Foundational Educational, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization.

We have partnered in this endeavor to further the educational and charitable goals of both organizations. Making this event successful can only be accomplished through your generous participation at various giving levels with several attractive benefits which are explained in detail on the enclosed Sponsorship form. Checks should be made payable to “SOI Foundation”.

A member of our Tournament Committee will contact you to discuss your support. We look forward to working with you as we strive to make a difference. Thank you in advance for your consideration and support.

Sincerely,
GRALL Tournament Committee
